COMMANDANT'S COMMENTS

Marines,

Thanks to all of you who worked the Winter Barbeque at Schultes. The barbeques are one of the few sources we have of generating the revenues we need to run the detachment and it was great to see such a good turnout.

The Department Staff Meeting will be held on 1 March. We need volunteers to help cook breakfast starting at 0600. Also on 1 March at 1600 we will be celebrating Ssgt Joe Mcgrail's retirement.

At the March meeting we will be electing the new staff of Detachment Officers. Please make an effort to attend. If you can think of any Marines who haven't been to a meeting lately, give them a call and an invite.

Life members, please get your donation ($10.00 or more) for the charities raffle to Dave Hunter ASAP.

Semper Fi,
Steve Diemler

QUOTEABLE QOUTES

The U. S. Marine is a professional who stands ready to fight anytime, anywhere, any enemy that the President and Congress may designate and to do so coolly, capably, and in the spirit of professional detachment. He is not trained to hate, nor is he whipped up emotionally for battle or for any other duty the Corps may be called on to perform. Patriotism and professionalism are his only two 'isms.'

—Col Robert D. Heintl Jr. USMC (Ret) 1970

We've been looking for the enemy for several days now. We've finally found them. We are surrounded. That simplifies the problem of getting to these people and killing them."

—Col Lewis B. "Chesty" Puller, Chosin Reservoir, Korea 1950
